

Concertino MuziekOnderwijs is the only music school for the Jewish community in the Netherlands. Located in the facility of the Jewish preliminary school Rosj Pina, Concertino Music School already has more than 120 students from ages of 4 to 21 and from every part of the Jewish community in and around Amsterdam.

In musical and social experience.

In Concertino Muziek we do not only focus on the music but also on the community and on the student's education! In the short time Concertino MuziekOnderwijs is active it already had the opportunity to play in many concerts and events for the Jewish community. Concertino is also arranging voluntary concerts at Beth Shalom and Sinai Hospital and other charity events for the community.

Concertino is putting a great emphasis on the Jewish tradition in music!!! We teach our students Jewish, Israeli and holiday songs as part of our curriculum.

Concertino is keeping up with technology. Part of our program is dedicated to music production, and making music on the computer. We deal with sound engineering, composing and recording.

The advantage of studying with CMO is not only because of our well designed program; with CMO you are paying for the actual lessons you get! Our schedule is based around the Jewish calendar to make sure our students do not miss any lesson because of Jewish holidays

Why music?

Music program is an essential part in general education

Music education can expand the horizons of the students and can contribute to the development of thinking and creativity .

The nature of music education will encourage discipline, openness, better communication, focus, creativity, working towards short and long term goals, concentration, focused work and the ability to practice

In addition, the performance side of music education will encourage and develop the student ability to deal with pressure, standing in front of an audience and gain confidence in front of public and in public situations

the group and ensemble playing is developing better listening and communication and social skills
