Sign up now for the music lessons by Concertino Muziekonderwijs.
Join our high quality music program and learn from excellent educators!!
Concertino Muziekonderwijs (CMO) is the only music school for the Jewish community in the Netherlands. Located in the facility of the preliminary school Rosj Pina, CMO already has more than 150 students from ages of 4 to 21 and from every part of the community in and around Amsterdam.

MUSICAL EDUCATION & SOCIAL EXPERIENCE

In CMO we do not only focus on music education but also on our student's social experience and community engagement. We organize band rehearsals, small ensembles and performances to give our students the full musical and social experience in their educational trajectory, and put great emphasis on the Jewish tradition in music.

With over 12 years experience, we have had the opportunity to give many concerts and events for the community and on national stages. CMO is arranging many voluntary concerts at Beth Shalom, Sinai Hospital, working closely with Jewish and Israeli organizations to connect the music to its roots and traditions. Our curriculum is full and versatile bringing together our expertise in classical, jazz and popular music and up to Jewish, Israeli and holiday songs. The advantage of studying with CMO is not only with of our well designed program; CMO schedule is based around the Jewish calendar to make sure our students do not miss any lesson because of Jewish holidays

WHY MUSIC?

Music program is an essential part in general education

Music education expands the horizon of the students and contributes to the development of thinking and creativity . The nature of music education encourages discipline, openness, better communication, focus, creativity, working towards short and long term goals, concentration, focused work and the ability to practice.

In addition, the performance side of music education will encourage and develop the student ability to deal with pressure, standing in front of an audience and gain confidence in front of public and in public situations. The group and ensemble playing is developing better listening, communication and social skills
